

Eight Common Disciplinary "Malpractices"

1. Prescribing learning as punishment
2. Intentionally causing fear, anger, aggression, apathy, anxiety and tension
3. Punishing the whole class because of the action of a few
4. Using grades to control, inhibit or coerce students
5. Physically or verbally abusing the student
6. Ignoring the student for long period of time
7. Excessive embarrassment to the student
8. Withholding credit for disciplinary reasons.